

Unit 4: SUBJECT AND VERB

With past tense verbs, the formation of the verb is the same for all subjects. But in the present tense, the first word of the verb changes for 3rd person singular (Unit 2). However, the verb be is different.

All verbs except be

a PRESENT TENSE

3rd person singular (Unit 2) We use the s form (Unit 14).	All other persons Use base form (Unit 14).
She likes hot weather.	I like hot weather.
This heater uses gas.	These heaters use gas.
The game has finished.	The games have finished.
Does he play tennis?	Do you play tennis?

NOTICE: Only the first word of the verb changes.
We say: The game has finished. NOT has finisheds
Does he play tennis? NOT does he plays

NOTICE: Modal verbs (Unit 27) do not have an s form.
We say: He will come. NOT wills come

b PAST TENSE

We use the past form (Unit 14) for all persons.

The verb be

	PRESENT TENSE	PAST TENSE
1ST PERSON SINGULAR	I am tired. I am going home.	I was tired. I was going home.
3RD PERSON SINGULAR	Maria is tired. She is going home.	Maria was tired. She was going home.
ALL OTHER PERSONS	You are tired. We are going home. They are sleeping.	You were tired. We were going home. They were sleeping.

NOTICE: The other forms of be (be, been, being - Unit 16) are the same for all persons.